

Gathering in Glasgow on Conflict and Faith

Thursday 31st October -
Saturday 2nd November 2019
Glasgow Royal Concert Hall
Adelaide Place Baptist Church

Meet our Exhibitors...

Subject to Change

Place for Hope

Place for Hope accompanies and equips people and faith communities so that all might reach their potential to be peacemakers who navigate conflict well. Our vision is for a world where people embrace the transformational potential of conflict and nurture the art of peace-building.

www.placeforhope.org.uk

transforming conflict • embracing difference

place for hope

Bridge
Builders

Bridge Builders Ministries

Bridge Builders seeks to transform the Christian culture in relation to how leaders lead and the way conflict is handled. We aim to strengthen the ministry of Christian leaders, by helping them to be more self aware, and to develop greater skills, confidence and resilience for working with tensions and conflict in Christian communities. We offer a range of training courses and workshops and lead tailored learning events on request. In addition we provide coaching, consultancy and mediation services.

www.bbministries.org.uk

Scottish Mediation

Scottish Mediation seeks to:

- Promote understanding of the appropriate use of mediation in conflict management and prevention
- Support and promote education, training and research in skills and best practice
- Create and encourage links between mediators and Scottish public, private, voluntary and community organisations
- Promote standards of professional conduct www.scottishmediation.org.uk

scottish
mediation

The Archbishop's Reconciliation Ministry

As individuals and as societies, we need reconciliation at every level. From our own relationship with God, to relationships in workplaces, wider communities and the whole of creation. Each of these is interconnected: fractures at one level can have a damaging impact on another.

Reconciliation is a call to restore relationships in every sphere of life. The Reconciling Leaders Network is about building a worldwide movement of Christians who are inspired and equipped to live out this call.

www.archbishopofcanterbury.org/priorities/reconciliation

The Blackley Centre

The Blackley Centre is a welcoming, safe and inspiring meeting place

- for people seeking to transform conflict and make peace
- for people of all faiths to develop and grow in understanding and friendship
- for retreats, away days, meetings, training and conferences

www.blackleycentre.co.uk

Corrymeela believes that people can learn to live and work well together. We have fifty years of experience working alongside fractured communities and groups who are finding their relationships difficult, as well as addressing relational, societal, structural and power dynamics.

www.corrymeela.org

The Presbytery of Glasgow / Priority Areas

The vision of the Church of Scotland is to be a church which seeks to inspire the people of Scotland and beyond with the Good News of Jesus Christ through enthusiastic worshiping, witnessing and serving communities. The Presbytery is part of the Church of Scotland, supporting over one hundred congregations in the Glasgow and Greater Glasgow area. Priority Areas supports those in the most economically deprived parishes.

www.churchofscotland.org.uk

ROSE CASTLE FOUNDATION

The Rose Castle Foundation

The Rose Castle Foundation is an international reconciliation centre based at Rose Castle in Cumbria. We transform conflict by equipping emerging leaders to disagree well. Our mission is to provide a secure, hospitable space in which those who are in profound conflict can encounter one another face-to-face and develop critical skills to be radical peacemakers in religiously diverse contexts.

www.rosecastle.com

The Community of Aidan and Hilda

The Community of Aidan and Hilda is a dispersed, ecumenical body drawing inspiration from the lives of the Celtic saints. The Open Gate, on Lindisfarne is our main house and offers accommodation for members and visitors. We provide a programme of retreats and events on Holy Island, around the UK, and internationally.

www.aidanandhilda.org.uk

Interfaith
Scotland

Interfaith Scotland

Interfaith Scotland is a charity specialising in promoting and facilitating constructive engagement between different faith and belief communities across Scotland through dialogue, educational activities, civic engagement and the promotion of religious equality.

We facilitate dialogue for local interfaith groups, faith communities, young people, women, religious leaders, our members and members of the general public. We educate and engage through presentations and seminars, religion and belief equality training, school workshops and producing resources.

www.interfaithscotland.org

Shoreline Conversations

Shoreline Conversations has a highly experienced team of people committed to the support and development of faith-based communities and agencies.

Shoreline offers quarterly explorations of major themes of contemporary ecumenical Christianity, notes and advice on personal reflection and graceful conversation, and training workshops for small group facilitators.

Shoreline is also running a 3-5 year ecumenical project, exploring what it means to live a balanced thoughtful life from a broadly Christian perspective.

www.shorelineconversations.com

Nil By Mouth

Nil by Mouth is a registered Scottish Charity existing for the sole purpose of achieving a society free from sectarianism where cultural and religious diversity is respected and celebrated by everyone. We believe that Scotland can succeed in this goal if we unite together to tackle the problem as a nation.

www.nilbymouth.org/

Christian Aid Ireland

Christian Aid Ireland supports communities to overcome injustice, respond to humanitarian emergencies, campaign for change, and claim services and rights they are entitled to. Our work includes helping people to:

- claim their rights and access services such as healthcare
- overcome violence and build peace in their communities
- stand up for equality for women, prevent gender-based violence and provide support for survivors
- become more resilient to disasters such as drought, climate change and hurricanes
- advocate in Ireland and overseas against corporate tax dodging and demand that companies pay their fair share

www.christianaid.ie

Quaker Life Network

The Quaker Life Network works to nurture the connection between Quakers, meetings and Quaker Life. The Network provides opportunities for short term service, shared learning, facilitation and events to support the life and fabric of Quaker communities. The Network links with the Quaker Life Representative Council to amplify the learning of Reps and foster positive change in Quaker communities. The Network also includes a number of groups working on specific issues such as mental health or outreach.

www.quaker.org.uk

Northern Friends Peace Board

We are Quakers from throughout the North of Britain, meeting and working together 'to advise and encourage Friends in the North ... and through them their fellow citizens, in the active promotion of peace in all its height and breadth.'

Our work focuses on activities relating to:

- Promoting a culture of Peace
- Challenging militarism.
- Roots of conflict and roots of peace
- Promoting awareness and action on current peace concerns

www.nfpb.org.uk

For more information and to apply to exhibit at the Gathering in Glasgow on Conflict and Faith, contact:
gathering@placeforhope.org.uk.

Gathering in Glasgow on Conflict and Faith

Exhibition Space Maps

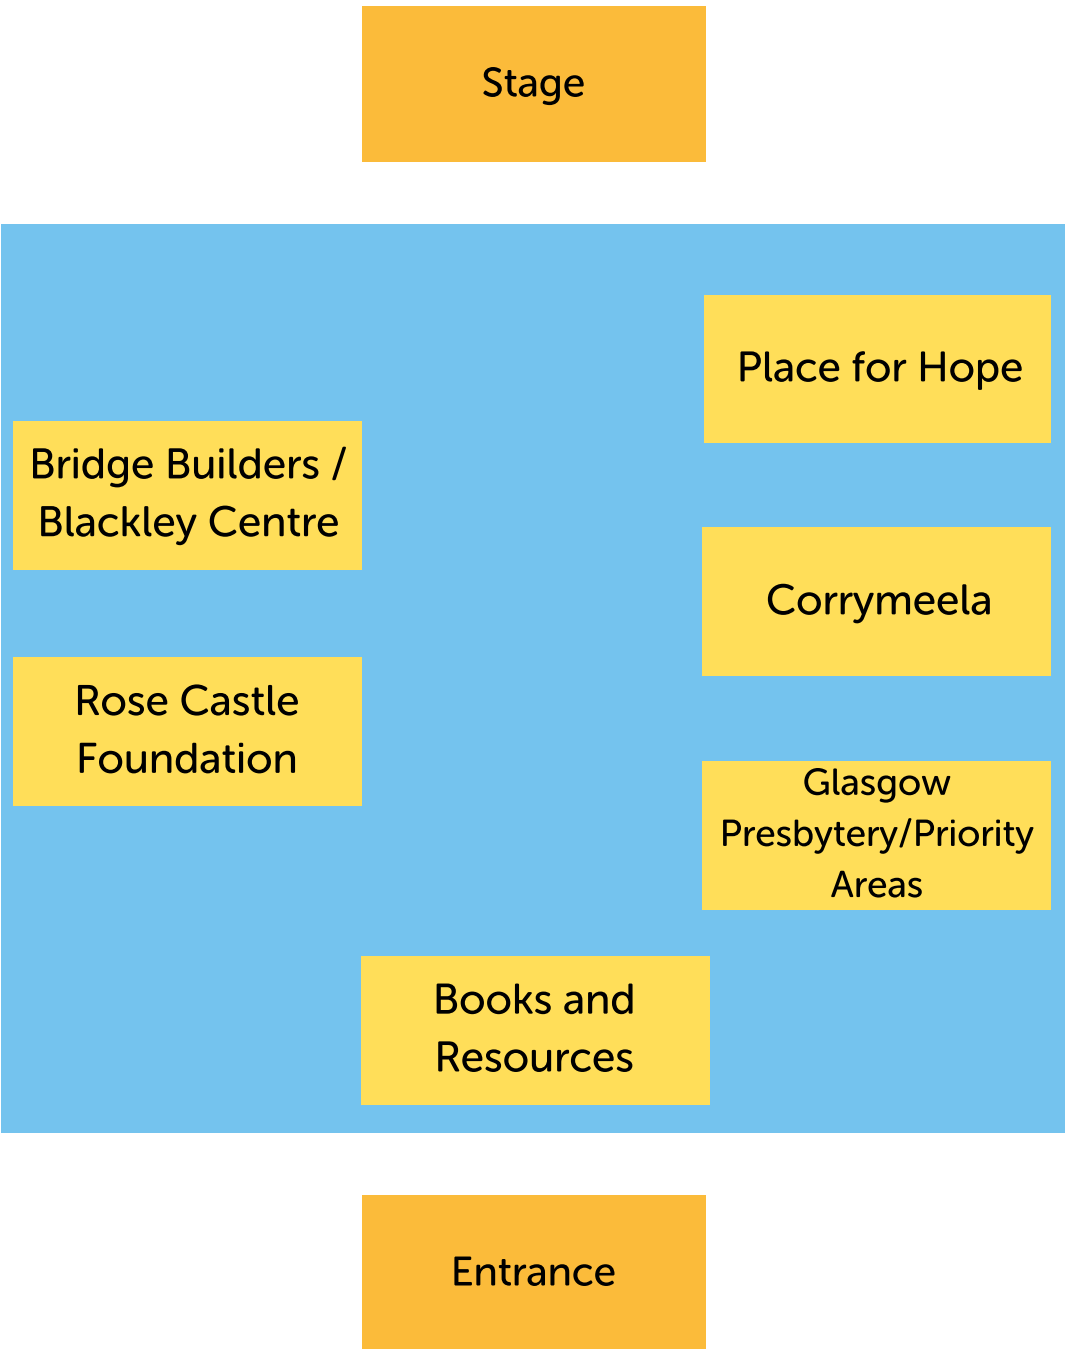

Glasgow Royal Concert Hall

Thursday 31st October - Friday 1st November

Adelaide Place Baptist Church

Saturday 2nd November

This layout is not to scale and is subject to change.